

Blanket Order Requirements

This blanket order agreement projects our annual volume based on Avox Systems Inc. estimates for the period ending 12 months from the date of first delivery. While there are no representations or guarantees for this volume of product to be purchased, both buyer and seller agree that this volume of product to be purchased, is a reasonable estimate of our annual purchases. Buyer shall not be under any obligation, express or implied, to purchase this amount. Commitment to accept material is limited to actual quantities shown on the purchase order release. The following are additional terms and conditions applicable to this agreement.

1. Supplier shall not ship any product shown on agreement until specifically released by the buyer.
2. Releases may be initiated by phone, fax, or mail. Supplier to confirm receipt of all releases.
3. Prices shown on this agreement will remain firm for the duration of the agreement.
4. Quality acceptance criteria are based upon applicable drawing and revision letter shown on this agreement and any other supplementary specifications, attached or shown herein. Approved material, tooling, and processes cannot be changed without express written approval of Avox Systems.
5. Supplier shall be allowed to carry raw material not to exceed 15% of blanket order quantity in order to be more responsive to Avox Systems Inc. requirements.
6. Quality Clause codes are shown below under item description. A Certificate of Conformance must accompany each packing slip showing correct part number, purchase order number, revision of b/p, mfg. date, quantity and lot numbers. (Ref S-0002W-QA) found on Avox web site at www.zodiacaerospace.com/en/supplier-information).
7. Supplier agrees to ship material to arrive on the due date shown on the purchase release. Avox has a clear policy against receiving material early, late or quantities not being consistent with the purchase order. This policy is 10 days early and no days late.
8. Government Requirements that may be applicable to a blanket order are listed in the "Special Provisions" section, also found on the Web site.